

From a weed patch (July 30, 2007) the Serene Conservancy lowlands have been converted to prairie grassland (June 10, 2021), without the use of any irrigation water. (Google Earth imagery)

Since COVID the public has voted with their feet, grooming the trails better than previous mowing. Nov.26 '21